3rd MEDITARCH- ANCIENT WORLD Conference

Archaeology and History of the Ancient Mediterranean World, from Prehistory to Late Antiquity

The MA Programs “Greek and Eastern Mediterranean Archaeology” and “Archaeology and History of the Ancient World: from Prehistory to Late Antiquity” of the Department of History and Archaeology of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (NKUA) invite current and former postgraduate students, as well as PhD candidates, to submit abstracts for the 3rd MEDITARCH- ANCIENT WORLD Conference. The event will take place with in-person attendance only on 16 October 2026 at the Library Auditorium, School of Philosophy, University Campus Zografou.

Building on the achievements of its previous editions, the 3rd MEDITARCH-ANCIENT WORLD Conference further consolidates its role as an interdisciplinary forum for the archaeology and history of the ancient Mediterranean world, from prehistory to Late Antiquity. The conference also welcomes contributions in Digital Humanities and Archaeological Science. It provides a dynamic academic platform for postgraduate and doctoral students of the NKUA, enabling them to present ongoing research, exchange ideas, and engage in scholarly dialogue.

Thematic areas: Ancient History, Classical Archaeology, Eastern Mediterranean and Near Eastern Civilizations, Epigraphy, Museology, Numismatics, Prehistoric Archaeology, Digital Humanities, Archaeological Science.

Abstracts should be submitted via email by 15 July, 2026 to the following email address:

meditarch.conference@gmail.com

Paper proposals should not exceed 250 words (excluding references) and must include the title of the paper, the author’s full name, their current academic status at NKUA, a short bibliography of up to five references, and contact information, including an email address. Please specify the scientific field of your contribution in the subject line of your email.

All oral presentations should be 15 minutes long. The official language of the Conference is English.
