

Agreement between Publisher, Editor, and Contributor(s)

The School of English, Department of Theoretical and Applied Linguistics, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (hereafter Publisher) has agreed to publish your contribution in the 24th International Symposium papers on Theoretical and Applied Linguistics - Selected Papers (hereafter ISTAL24). The Agreement is contingent upon the following statement of yours as Author(s):

I/We, author/authors of this Contribution, warrant to ISTAL24 that the Contribution is my/our original work, that I/we have the full power and authority to enter into this Agreement; that I/we submit the work for first publication in ISTAL24 and that it is not being considered for publication elsewhere and has not already been published elsewhere, either in printed or in electronic form; that the Contribution is not pending review elsewhere. If this is not the case, the Author will provide the Journal with information about the other locations where the Submission appears or is pending review. Prior distribution of a Submission does not mean a Submission will not be considered for publication; the Journal is primarily concerned with other appearances in similar publications; that I/we have obtained and enclose all necessary permissions for the reproduction of any copyright works (including artistic works, e.g. illustrations, photographs, charts, maps, other visual material, etc.) contained in the Contribution and not owned by me/us and that I/we have acknowledged all the source(s); that the Contribution contains no violation of any existing copyright, other third party rights or any libellous or untrue statements and does not infringe any rights of others; that if the Contribution has multiple authors, all the other authors are identified in the Contribution; that I/we agree to indemnify ISTAL24 against any claims in respect of the above warranties.

The Contribution complies with all relevant Journal policies and submission guidelines provided on the Journal's website at the time of submission, including any policies on conflict of interest, or appropriate content.

ISTAL24 provides immediate open access to its content on the principle that making research freely available to the public supports greater global exchange knowledge. ISTAL24 does not charge any article or author processing fees. Authors retain the copyright of their work and grant to the journal the right of first publication.

Authors agree to license their work according to Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-SA 4.0). All articles published by ISTAL24 are licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-SA 4.0), which allows others to remix, tweak, and build upon the licensed material on a non-commercial basis, as long as proper credit is given and new creations are licensed under identical terms as the original license.

Authors retain the right to reproduce and distribute their articles in any format, without prior authorization, with the proper acknowledgment to the first publication and to include the Contribution, in whole or in part, in another work.

Authors are encouraged to self-archive their article online (in institutional repositories, personal websites etc.). Any such posting must include an appropriate citation and a link to the journal's website.

Authors' responsibilities: inclusion of other copyright material

Responsibility for obtaining permission to use any other copyright material rests with you as the author(s) of the Contribution.

If your Contribution includes material which is not your copyright, you are responsible for submitting with your manuscript the written permission from those who control copyright in that material to include it and reproduce it within your Contribution. In most cases this will be the publisher of the work. This permission applies to all media in all languages in perpetuity. You are responsible for the payment of any permission fees.
