

HELLENIC REPUBLIC
National and Kapodistrian
University of Athens
EST. 1837

Conference in honor of Constantin Petridi

National and Kapodistrian
University of Athens
Department of Mathematics
Friday 28 June 2019, 11 a.m.
Amphitheater C. Carathéodory

	Programme
11:00 – 11:15	Ioannis Emmanouil, Panagiotis Psarrakos Opening address & salutations
11:15 – 11:30	Khalide Jbilou “A Sylvester-Tikhonov regularization method for image processing”
11:30 – 11:45	Paraskevi Fika “Stochastic Estimates for the Trace of Functions of Matrices via Hadamard Matrices”
11:45 – 12:15	Coffee Break
12:15 – 12:30	Angeliki Lappa “Comparative Study of L1 Regularized Logistic Regression Methods for Variable Selection”
12:30 – 12:45	Vasileios Alevizakos “Process Capability Index for Poisson Regression Profile based on S_{pmk} Index”
12:45 – 13:00	Spyros Paraskevas “Concept Drift Detection in Statistical Learning Models using Control Charts”
13:00 – 13:15	Professor Constantin Petridi

Brief CV of Professor Constantin Petridi

Professor C. Petridi was born in 1923, in Athens, Greece.

His father was Milton C. Petridi, heir to an internationally known tobacco company, founded in Constantinople (now Istanbul) in 1848.

His mother was Nina C. Petridi, born Fauquier, stemming from British colony, Corfu, Greece.

In 1952 C. Petridi married Lisa Skouze, daughter of Dimitri Skouzes and Athina Skouze.

He has one son, Milton C. Petridi.

From 1955 to 1972 he was consul for Sweden at Kavala, Greece, location of his family's tobacco business.

Professor Petridi is fluent in English, French, German and Swedish.

